MINUTE ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR WAIVER OF ARRAIGNMENT

The following Minute Order is made at the direction of the Court, the Honorable James P. Donohue, United States Magistrate Judge:

The defendant filed a Waiver of Arraignment (dkt #34) on August 21, 2006. As the defendant had not appeared on the charges, the waiver request was denied by Minute Order (dkt #35), and the defendant directed to appear as scheduled for arraignment on August 25, 2006. The defendant filed a Motion to Waive Arraignment (under seal) (dkt #37) subsequent to the filing of the Minute Order.

Neither the defendant nor counsel appeared for arraignment as directed. The Court has reviewed the motion (dkt #37) which should be considered a motion for reconsideration. The motion is DENIED. The policy of this Court has been and remains that a defendant is to be
